FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Morris to Host Sixth Celebration of Scholarly Accomplishments

This ongoing event showcases examples of outstanding research and artistic activities undertaken by faculty, staff, and retirees.

MORRIS, Minnesota (October 17, 2016)—The University of Minnesota, Morris is pleased to present its sixth Celebration of Scholarly Accomplishments. The event will showcase examples of outstanding research and artistic activities undertaken by more than 50 faculty, staff, and retirees in the last year.

This year's celebration will be open to students and the public on Wednesday, November 2, from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. and on Thursday, November 3, from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. in the Student Center's Oyate Hall. All are welcome to celebrate the academic and creative accomplishments of Morris's faculty and staff.

"Each year we pause to celebrate the work of our faculty and staff to further our understanding of the world around us," says Bart Finzel, vice chancellor for academic affairs and dean. "This annual event demonstrates the remarkable productivity of their efforts."

"Faculty at Morris are known not only for their excellence in teaching, but also for their research and artistic accomplishments," adds Chancellor Jacqueline R. Johnson. "This event provides a window into that work and celebrates the academic and creative success that contributes to our national reputation."

The Celebration of Scholarly Accomplishments is sponsored by the Office of the Chancellor, the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs and Dean, Rodney A. Briggs Library, and the Grants Development Office. For more information, please contact the Office of Student Activities, Conferences, and Special Events at 320-589-6080.
